Shade 1 Jeri Smith Ready

Jeri Smith-Ready could teach an AP course on makin I assumed this would be a dark tale of ghosts and what not, with your obligatory love triangle and a heroine without much of a personality. What I got was a dark tale of ghosts and what they could become, Shades.

Shade - Jeri Smith-Ready

Jeri Smith-Ready has done such an incredible job in telling this story and creating this world that you can't help but feel entranced and transported into Aura's life and her dilemma's, the best of which is the appearance of Zach a boy that will definitely make Aura's heart beat faster but that she'll not give herself to, specially since she still has a boyfriend, he is a ghost, but who cares.

Review: Shade by Jeri Smith-Ready | Gone with the Words

Jeri Smith-Ready slaps you upside the head right off the bat and in less than a quarter of the way through you are already bawling like a little girl who lost her favorite teddy in an oil slick. Totally ambushed by snot and tears sort of cry.
