The Book Of Atrus Myst

The book opens in the sandy deserts and the life of a young Atrus, still a boy and far from the happenings of the first Myst game. After a loving, peaceful life in the desert presided over by his grandmother, Anna, a strange figure appears at their quiet desert home. A tall, pale man who claims to be Atrus's father, Gehn. After 14

Myst: The Book of Atrus | EW.com

The Book of Atrus is the first book in the Myst series of novels, set in the same universe as the Myst computer games by Cyan Worlds, and was written by Ryan Miller in 1994. However the publisher Hyperion wanted a published author to work on the book so David Wingrove re-wrote the story with the help of Richard VanderWende, Rand and Robyn Miller.

Original Myst Novels - Myst Journey

Myst: The Book of Atrus begins with the story of Atrus, a young boy living with his grandmother, Anna, in “the cleft”, a fissure near a dormant volcano. Atrus was abandoned to Anna by his father, Ghen (Anna’s son), after Atrus’s mother dies giving birth to him. (Ghen abandons Atrus before Atrus is even named.)
