The Logic Of Sense Gilles

In Logic of Sense, Deleuze attacks this problem, first developing the paradoxes that result from the structure of sense and then sketching a theory of its genesis. He does this using resources from analytic philosophy and the Stoics in the course of a reading of Lewis Carroll—a typically innovative, if not quirky, set of Deleuzean references.

The "body without organs" (French: corps sans organes) is a concept used by French philosophers Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari. It is a "body without an image", a structure or zone without imposed organization that can be sentient or inanimate. In Deleuze and Guattari's Capitalism and Schizophrenia, it is the raw product of social alienation and destabilization, and a surface on which ...
