Contemplative Prayer
Thomas Merton
(1915-1968) was an American Trappist, scholar of comparative religion, priest, poet, mystic and author of more than seventy books, including The Seven Storey Mountain, that aroused an enormous new interest in contemplative prayer. Contemplation is essentially a listening in silence, an expectancy.

Thomas Merton's classic study of monastic prayer and contemplation brings a tradition of spirituality alive for the present day. But, as A. M. Allchin points out in his Introduction to this new edition, Contemplative Prayer also shows us the present day in a new perspective, because we see it in the light of a long and living tradition.
