Also, Helmut W. Ziefle's Modern Theological German is often used. The first half consists of a reader of German theological works with vocab (Luther, Schlatter, Barth, Bonhoeffer, etc.), while the second is a dictionary. I also cannot recommend highly enough Luther's Shorter Catechism (Der Kleine Katechismus).

The German is NOT a word for word translation, but selects key words and phrases and translates them. The rest is up to the student-reader. I agree with the review that said this was a good book for someone with 'some'German instruction. It is NOT a basic reader for the German beginner. In my case 'some' is 50 year old high school German and it helped!
