The Fiction Class by Susan Breen - FictionDB

The Fiction Class is a short and fast read, but it gets its point across. The story is beautifully written, but what really stands out are the main characters. Breen has created characters who are flawed but real, characters that readers, especially women, will be able to connect with.

Book review: Susan Breen's The Fiction Class

Breen pretty well takes the easy way out in this by-the-numbers novel about a young woman struggling with her unfinished novel and an unresolved relationship with her mother. It's no surprise that she finds the answers to both as she teaches a fiction class for adults. ()
